Whistle blowing' policy

All of us, at one time or another, have concerns about what is happening at work. Usually these concerns are easily resolved. However, when they are about unlawful conduct, unsafe working practices or financial irregularities, it can be difficult to know what to do.

Speaking up about any concern at work is really important. It is vital because it will help our Company with improving services for both customers and staff.

The Directors are fully committed to this policy. They encourage a culture of open and constructive criticism to support the overall welfare of employees and the organisation as a whole.

If you raise a concern under this policy, you will not be at risk of losing your job or suffering any form of retribution as a result.

How to Raise a Concern

Option One

If you have a concern about malpractice, we hope you will feel able to raise it internally in the first instance with your supervisor. This may be done either verbally or in writing.

Option Two

In the event that you feel unable to raise the matter with your supervisor, you can raise the matter with a Director. This again may be done verbally or in writing.

If you are not satisfied with our response, you can then seek independent advice from:

Public Concern at Work (PCaW). This is a charity that aims to protect society by encouraging workplace whistleblowing. It advises individuals with whistleblowing dilemmas at work, supports organisations with their whistleblowing arrangements and informs public policy. You can contact them by calling on 0207 404 6609 or by emailing whistle@pcaw.org.uk. Their website is www.pcaw.org.uk
